Simple, Well Developed, Addictive

I bought this game because I was searching for something similar to multiplayer bomberman. Definitely I hit it right, amazing nostalgic experience. I never thought I would be addicted to this much on a simple game, but the feeling of competitiveness got me there. Completely worth the money :)

Game is full of different potions, mounts and bombs, they strongly dedicated their time to make this fun for us. Me and my friends got our competitiveness right there, searching for new potions of speed, strength and others. I am waiting for the next update, can't wait to see how this game is growing. I feel like the creators had a real fun time developing the game, as a game developer

I'm real jealous of it. Keep working on it, WE WANT MORE!

The game is better with friends, but I finished the storyline too, loved all those different themes and backgrounds. Thank you for the lovely nostalgic experience, will buy the next game or dlc too. <3
